Read this poem aloud.

There Isn't Time

There isn't time, there isn't time
 To do the things I want to do –
 With all the mountain tops to climb
 And all the woods to wander through
 And all the seas to sail upon,
 And everywhere there is to go,
 And all the people, every one,
 Who live upon the earth to know.
 There's only time, there's only time
 To know a few, to do a few,
 And then sit down and make a rhyme
 About the rest I want to do.

Eleanor Farjeon

Make a list of five things you would like to do, in order of importance.

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Now write about why you chose number one and what it would be like if you could do it.

This activity gives your child the opportunity to practice listing skills by arranging in order of importance the things he or she would like to do. Encourage your child to explain why his or her first choice is the most important.
